Rationale

Other:

The committee upheld staff's decision in this case. The committee considered the institution's written appeal for an extension of eligibility waiver for a men's basketball student-athlete for the 2024-2025 academic year. The committee considered the totality of information provided and determined the student-athlete did not have two denied participation opportunities beyond the control of the student-athlete or institution. Specifically, the 2018-19 academic year in which the student was not on a squad list and eligible for competition is within the student's control. Additionally, the committee did not identify any extraordinary circumstances to warrant relief. Therefore, based on current legislation and consistent with case precedent, the committee upheld the staff's decision.
